The Independent, Nonprofit Guide for Serious Divers Since 1975

April 26, 2022 Forward

If you're even THINKING about a dive trip in the next 18 months, where COVID still affects travel, dive operators, and your destination: you need Undercurrent, the exclusive guide for traveling divers ... at our 1999 price!

And I have a thank-you gift for you

We've been an advertising-free, diver sponsored publication for 47 years, telling your fellow divers the truth about resort and liveaboard safety and health, the quality of the reefs, the comfort of the accommodations, as well as travel ripoffs, dive insurance problems, and where to go – and where not too.

In the time of COVID, we are the only trusted dive source.

Every year, you and your fellow subscribers receive

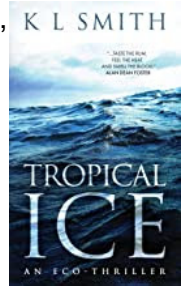

- Ten jam-packed, advertising-free issues, including the annual Travelin' Diver's Chapbook, with hundreds of current liveaboard and resort reviews written by your fellow subscribers
- Online access to thousands of travel reviews, information about water temperatures, reef quality, fish seen, boat safety, food, everything you need to know to plan a trip.
- Email Access to report writers to ask questions about their trips to help you plan yours.
- Online access to 20 years of stories about liveaboard safety, lawsuits, surface marker devices, dive insurance problems, resort and liveaboard ripoffs, diver deaths, immersive pulmonary embolism (perhaps the number one killer of divers next to heart attacks), safety stop tips, how COVID affects diving capacity, and much, much more.
- Email access to editors and writers to ask questions, report problems, get their tips.

And I have a special offer for you – just $19.95 for a free six-month trial subscription for just the next few days. That was the price in 1999.

And, with your subscription, you'll receive Free, my eco-thriller, *Tropical Ice, which kicks off with Shark Week and Cap'n Jack's dive report on the Belize Barrier Reef. While I wrote it under my nom-de-plume, it's chock full of diving adventure, shark poaching, and international intrigue. It's available to you in Kindle, EPUB, or pdf formats.

And, at any time during your six months, if you wish to discontinue your subscription, I'll refund it all. It's a pledge I've kept since I started Undercurrent in 1975.

So subscribe now. You have nothing to lose and, if you're even thinking about a dive trip, everything to gain in selecting where to go – or not go – on your next trip. have nothing to lose and everything to gain to help you decide where to go -- or not go – on your next dive trip.

Click here to join thousands of your fellow divers who rely on Undercurrent's inside scoop to plan their diving.
